Show Report

The WAFQHC show on June 24, 25, 26 is going to happen.

Gabi's group cannot take care of the concessions. However, Gabi did find a husband and wife team. They will serve breakfast and lunch.

Rich read the list of sponsors.

Ginny had the idea to give something to Elenbaas for the tremendous support they have given our club for our show. Greg made a motion, Rich seconded to give Elenbaas a plaque in appreciation for their support.

Rich talked about the update on the EHV-1 virus. On Monday the Department of Agriculture will decide whether or not to lift the ban on exemptions on 96 hour health certificates. We will not require a health certificates or signed affidavits for the show.

Rich got shavings and will transport them to the Goldendale fairgrounds.

Cec is continuing to collect items for the silent auction.

New Business

Idea for the club to put together a cook book was mentioned.

Greg Akehurst said that he would donate a dinner for four. Something will be written up when it is decided how the club will use his generous offer.

Meeting adjourned at 1:16 pm.
